

For press releases, interview opportunities, and other media related concerns, please reach out to: pr@trustnetinc.com

Company Background

Since 2003, TrustNet has been a strategic partner helping clients ensure the security and integrity of their businesses. From the company's headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia, TrustNet serves mid-size and large organizations, both public and private, across multiple industries, in the United States and around the world.

TrustNet in the Press

TrustNet has been featured on relevant media platforms and industry publications such as Dark Reading, CSO Online, Information Week, Fast Company, Medium, TechRepublic, and CNBC.

About Us

TrustNet is recognized as a leading provider of managed security, consulting, and compliance services that help businesses build trusted relationships with their customers, partners, and employees.

For over two decades, TrustNet has provided clients with knowledgeable, skilled, and experienced technical resources. The company's team of experts has significant experience across numerous industries and technical platforms.

TrustNetInc.com

About Trevor Horwitz

Founder and CISO of TrustNet, Trevor previously served as President of InfraGard Atlanta in partnership with the FBI.

With his background in Information Systems, Accounting, and Business Law, as well as his decades-long experience in cybersecurity and compliance, Trevor is a sought-after presenter at international security conferences including RSA Conference, SPIN, TAG, and ISACA.

His qualifications include CISSP, PCI QSA, PCI PCIP, HITRUST CCSFP, CISA, ISO 27001 Lead Auditor.

"At TrustNet, we don't just offer services; we deliver experiences that change the way our clients do business. We're the security and assurance backbone that enables our clients to achieve their goals."